

FERPA 3rd Party Release

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. Please go to the Registrar's website for more information about FERPA and what it means to you.

As a student, you may choose to allow specific individuals, such as parents, to view your student education records. You must complete a release form in order to allow this access. This form is located under the Profile tile on your Student homepage.

Please note that FERPA access does not grant access to the UAConnect Parent Center.

1. Click the Profile tile on your homepage.

2. On the dropdown menu, click FERPA 3rd Party Release to open the form.

3. Review the form and make any necessary changes. Click Save if changes are made.
